The showing of unconfirmed Champions in Best of Breed Competition is limited to a period of 90 days from the date of the show where the dog completed the requirements for a championship.

NON-REGULAR CLASSES (Involving Multiple Dog Entries)

Note: Chapter 11, Section 8 of the Dog Show Rules provides that castrated males may be entered as the Stud Dog & spayed females may be entered as the Brood Bitch. As the judge's decision in the Non-Regular Classes involving Multiple Dog Entries is based on the merits of more than one dog or bitch, no one of the dogs or bitches making up the entry judged first in these classes will be eligible to compete for Best of Breed by virtue of having won these classes.

ATTENTION EXHIBITORS IN STUD DOG & BROOD BITCH CLASSES: Rules Applying to Dog Shows, AKC Chapter 14, Section 2: (Applying to all Get & Produce Shown) "Any club or association giving a dog show must provide arm cards & shall see that every person exhibiting a dog wears, when in the ring, an arm card containing thereon the catalog number of the dog being exhibited."

STUD DOG CLASS: For Stud Dogs and two of their get. Stud Dogs must be entered in the Stud Dog Class and must be shown in the ring with their Get. The owner of the Stud Dog need not necessarily be owner of the Get. Get only to be judged, based on the merits of the Get. While the merits of the Stud Dog are not to be considered in the placement of the entry, the Stud Dog must be examined to determine if it has a condition that would require its disqualification or excusal under the Dog Show Rules, AKC policy, or the standard for its breed. Get must be entered in a regular class, Best of Breed competition, or some other non-regular class.

BROOD BITCH CLASS: For Brood Bitches and two of their Produce. Brood Bitches must be entered in the Brood Bitch Class and must be shown in the ring with their Produce. The owner of the Brood Bitch need not necessarily be owner of the Produce. Produce must be entered in a regular class, Best of Breed competition, or some other non-regular class.

BRACE CLASS – Offered at Dalmatian Club of America Only: Two dogs that are similar in appearance, performing in unison, and presented by a maximum of two handlers. Both dogs competing in brace competition must have at least one common owner. The dogs comprising a Brace MUST be named at the time of entry. If a dog, which is to be part of a Brace, is not entered in any of the Regular Classes or for Best of Breed Competition, it must be entered for "Brace Class Only." An entry form for a dog entered in a Regular Class or for "Best of Breed Competition" and entered as part of a Brace MUST be marked accordingly in the space provided for Additional Classes, "Brace Class." If more than one Brace is entered by same owner, dogs comprising EACH BRACE must be so designated – "Brace No. 1," "Brace No. 2," etc.

That can amount to more than $50 savings for each passenger. If you plan to go sightseeing, use the money you save to rent a car and enjoy the great Northwest while you're here. If you are flying to Portland, the Meeting Fare Code is ECMU878. If you are flying nonstop to Seattle and driving down, your meeting code is ECMV052. - Appropriate waste disposal bags must be used for cleanup.
- Upon arrival at The Holiday Inn Portland Airport, the guests with dogs in their rooms will sign a copy of the DCA Hotel Rules, which will be submitted to the hotel staff and placed on file.
